Learn about GameJam in a brief information session.

Play games from previous jams and meet the creators.

Bring your ideas, your portfolios, your code, and your friends.

Meet like-minded people to form teams for the next GameJam!

GameJam is a randomly occurring event, designed to encourage game developers to collaborate and produce computer games. It provides an outlet for experimental gameplay and artistic creativity.

The next GameJam kicks off on Friday, May 1.
